TOURNAMENT ENTRY IS EXPECTED TO ECLIPSE PREVIOUS YEARS

Provision Is Being Made to Include Saturdays in Schedule. Several Afternoons of Each Week Also Likely To Be Required in Running Off Games.

By KIRK C. MILLER.

So large an entry is anticipated for the duckpin tournament which opens at the Palace alleys on the 27th of this month, that the board of governors is now considering the abrogation of the clause in the conduckpin Association which prohibits

Added to this economy of time, there is every probability that afternoons will also be consumed in disposing of the engthy string of games which will be scheduled, as this proposition is being considered along with the one changing the constitution to include games Saturdays. The latter suggestion was proposed in the form of a motion at Wednesday night's meeting of the essociation and the required six days allowed for the abolishment of any secion of the by-laws is now being allowed to lapse. The members of the board have been notified that the motion was arried and a date for action on the roposition of repealing section 5 of the y-laws will probably be set for next hursday night.

The only other business brought before Thursday night's session was that of including such afternoons as may be ecessary to terminate the tournament an appropriate time. One month is mought to be the longest period that the games should be allowed to run, as included in preparing the schedule and rolling the game.

Says It Is Impossible to Catch Swift Pitching Without Mask and Monster Mitt.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 10.-Loud Pigers when they read the statement credited to a British so-called sporting expert that the best cricketers could stand behind the bat and catch without any of the protecting armor worn by ball players.

Every man on the squad branded the Briton's ideas as too funny to be dis-cussed in anything but a "kidding" vein. Especially were the catchers in-clined to scoff at the boasted prowess of the wickel-keepers, who correspond in the English national mania to the tackstop in our game.
